THE WORLD BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SERIES

This series, which is principally designed for the English speaker, will eventually cover every country (and many of the world's principal regions), each in a separate volume comprising annotated entries on works dealing with its history, geography, economy and politics; and with its people, their culture, customs, religion and social organization. Attention will also be paid to current living conditions – housing, education, newspapers, clothing, etc. – that are all too often ignored in standard bibliographies; and to those particular aspects relevant to individual countries. Each volume seeks to achieve, by use of careful selectivity and critical assessment of the literature, an expression of the country and an appreciation of its nature and national aspirations, to guide the reader towards an understanding of its importance. The keynote of the series is to provide, in a uniform format, an interpretation of each country that will express its culture, its place in the world, and the qualities and background that make it unique. The views expressed in individual volumes, however, are not necessarily those of the publisher.

Bibliographies

533 International African bibliography.

David Hall. London: Mansell Publishing, 1971-. quarterly.

A quarterly list of current books, papers and articles dealing with Africa. It includes a section (since 1980) on the Indian Ocean islands, covering Mauritius as well as the other south-west Indian Ocean territories. It is compiled at the Library, School of Oriental and African Studies, London.

534 Central Western Indian Ocean bibliography.

A.J. Peters, J.F.G. Lionnet. Atoll Research Bulletin, no. 165 (1973). maps.

This is a special issue of the Bulletin which contains 322p. and 3 maps. The Mauritian islands are included in this list of some 2,000 scientific papers published between 1519 and 1971, and which deal with the former British-administered territories in the Indian Ocean. The publications are listed alphabetically, and there are indices.

535 Bibliography of Mauritius (1502-1954).

A. Toussaint, H. Adolphe. Port Louis: Mauritius Archives, 1956. 884p.

Toussaint and Adolphe were Chief Archivist and Assistant Archivist, respectively, of Mauritius. This bibliography covers printed records, manuscripts, archivalia and cartographic material. It includes sections on early imprints and private publications (1768-1954); periodicals, newspapers and serials (1773-1954); government and semi-official publications (1810-1954); publications issued abroad (1600-1954) (q.v.); manuscripts and archivalia (1598-1954); and plans, maps and charts (1502-1954). The object was 'to record as fully as possible . . . every relevant piece or set of printed, manuscript and cartographic material relative to the island of Mauritius and its dependencies from 1502 to the end of 1954'. This is indeed a thorough list.

536 Bibliography of South Asia and the strategic Indian Ocean.

Compiled by research analysts of the US Army Library. Washington, DC: Department of the US Army Library, 1973. 219p. maps.

In the main, this bibliography consists of references to research reports and articles; the emphasis is on geo-political and military strategy. There are useful sections of notes on individual territories, including Mauritius, and maps.

537 Madagascar and adjacent islands, a guide to official publications.

Julian W. Witherall. Washington, DC: Library of Congress, 1965. 49p.

This compilation includes official publications under the British administration in Mauritius up to 1965. The items are arranged by place, and there is an index.

Index

The index is a single alphabetical sequence of authors (personal and corporate), titles of publications and subjects. Index entries refer both to the main items and to other works mentioned in the notes to each item. Title entries are in italics. Numbers refer to bibliographical entries.
